Lodi, CA 95242

Dear Mr. Kuehne:

On behalf of the Lodi City Council may I extend our sincere appreciation for your willingness to serve on the City of Lodi Personnel Board of Review.

I have enclosed for your information a copy of Article II entitled Personnel Board of Review from the Lodi Municipal Code which sets forth the composition, terms, qualifications and charge of this board.

We know you will find your work on the Personnel Board of Review to be most interesting.

Very truly yours,

Lodi City Council

Article II. Personnel Board of Review

2.44.070 Established —

Composition — Vacancies.

There is created a personnel board of review which shall consist of three members to be appointed by the city council. Vacancies on the personnel board, from whatsoever cause, shall be filled by appointment by the city council. (Prior code § 17-6)

2.44.080 Terms.

The first personnel board to be appointed shall at its first meeting so classify its members by lot that one shall serve for a term which shall expire June 30, 1955, and two shall serve for a term which shall expire June 30, 1957. At the expiration of the terms so determined, successors shall be appointed for a term of four years. (Prior code § 17-7)

2.44.090 Qualifications of members.

The members of the personnel board shall be qualified electors of the city and shall serve without compensation. No person shall be appointed to the board who holds any position with the city nor shall any member while a member of the board be eligible for appointment to any position with the city. (Prior code § 17-8)

2.44.100 Hearing of appeals.

As provided by this chapter and by rule, the personnel board shall hear appeals submitted by any person in the classified service relative to any situation connected with his employment status or condition of employment, and shall submit a written statement of facts, findings and recommendations to the appointing authority from whose action or decision the appeal was made. Such recommendations shall be advisory only. The findings and recommendations of the board and any action taken by the appointing authority shall be final and conclusive and shall not be reviewable in any court. (Prior code § 17-9)

2.44.110 Investigatory and hearing powers.

In any investigation or hearing conducted by the personnel board, it shall have the power to examine witnesses under oath and compel their attendance or the production of evidence before it by subpoena issued in the name of the city. It shall be the duty of the chief of police to cause all such subpoenas to be served and refusal of a person to attend or testify in answer to such a subpoena shall subject the person to prosecution in the manner set forth by law for failure to appear before the city council in response to a subpoena issued by the city council. Each member of the personnel board shall have the power to administer oaths to witnesses. (Prior code § 17-10)
